

As a resident, in the daily struggles of life it gives me strength and peace. We can never have enough of the good word of God. We need to have a choice other than the stations that are not fit for a family to listen to. I believe the service provided by K-LOVE can nurture spirituality or even provide it for some degree for those who are searching for it. Encouragement!